

THE CENTER FOR IRISH MUSIC

CIM director Norah Rendell taught the first tune to the Swallowtail student ensemble, and it's been catching on to other students as well. She'd been listening to 2019 MIM Artist Randal Bays' album Out of the Woods, which has a great recording of this tune. The second tune is a common session hornpipe, and is also on CIM instructor Danny Diamond's album: North, as well as on accordion player Tommie Cunniffe's album: Unbuttoned, which is backed by CIM instructor Brian Miller.

The Concertina Hornpipe

hornpipe

Musical score for "The Concertina Hornpipe" in G major, 4/4 time. The score consists of four staves. The first two staves are the melody, and the last two are the accompaniment. The melody includes triplets and grace notes. The accompaniment features chords G, G/A, G/B, C, and D. There are two first and second endings for the melody.

The Plains Of Boyle

hornpipe

Musical score for "The Plains Of Boyle" in D major, 4/4 time. The score consists of four staves. The first two staves are the melody, and the last two are the accompaniment. The melody includes triplets. The accompaniment features chords D, A, and G. There are two first and second endings for the melody.