

ABOUT THE CENTER FOR IRISH MUSIC

WHAT IS ÉIGSE: A MUSICAL GAELA?

The Center for Irish Music's annual fundraising event, featuring a cocktail reception, a stellar Irish music concert by the Center for Irish Music instructors, silent auction, and a live fund-a-need auction.

When: Saturday, February 28, 2026

Where: This year's event will be hosted at the St. Paul Event Center located in the heart of the downtown cultural district near the Ordway and Landmark Center.

WHAT IS THE CENTER FOR IRISH MUSIC?

The Center for Irish Music is a thriving community music school dedicated to handing down the tradition. The CIM inspires and supports the local community through year-round educational programs, serving 470 unique students of all ages each year.

Located in St. Paul's Hamline-Midway neighborhood, the CIM leases 4000 sq at the Celtic Junction Arts Center, with custom-built spaces for private lessons, large ensemble rehearsals, and intimate concerts.

In the past year, the CIM:

- Rented out 55 uniquely Irish instruments to 46 enthusiastic learners for just $15-$25/month.
- Provided $15,000 in financial aid to students in need.
- Performed for 5500+ new audience members at schools and venues across the Twin Cities.
- Brought world-class traditional musicians to the Twin Cities for the 17th Minnesota Irish Music Weekend, a three-day Irish music festival.

ARE YOU READY TO SPONSOR ÉIGSE CIM, A GAELA EVENT?

Complete the sponsorship form on reverse side or contact Norah Rendell at nrendell@centerforirishmusic.org today!

